

SHOP REBRANDING

I led the creative rebrand of Main Street Auto's 100+ locations, directing an outside design team to unify storefronts while preserving local shop identities.

This included selecting new paint palettes, overseeing storefront and above-bay signage design, standardizing hours-of-operation displays, and creating an extended logo for cost-effective, versatile application — ensuring every shop felt cohesive, approachable, and true to its community roots.

